Sunday Worship Services - 8:30 A.M and 11:00 A.M

Here at Faith Community Lutheran... We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

3rd Weekend of Pentecost

June 20 & 21, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

Happy Father’s Day!

CAN YOU CREATE A WORLD?

In the courtroom a young woman was trying to defend herself of the accusations against her. In the heat of her arguments, she questioned the judge’s comments, to which the judge replied, “I will listen to you, but in my courtroom, only I ask the questions. I will make the decisions that I deem just and fair to everyone.”

Job too has been asking God to hear him—to explain to him why he must suffer so much. His friends are no help—his only hope is in God. Job wants to know, “WHY?” Haven’t we all been in that position at some time—asking why?

God appears to Job and talks to him. At last Job’s hope is fulfilled and the silence is broken. But the conversation will be on God’s terms. When this awesome experience of an encounter with God is over, Job still does not know why he suffered. He does not get answers to most of his questions, including why disaster occurred in his life. But Job is aware of the presence of God in a new and profound way.

When God speaks, He asks Job if he could do the mighty acts that God has done in making the earth, sea, sky and ensuring that everything operates in good order.

In times when we think we should be in charge or when we demand answers to our many questions, we need to stop and listen to God and ultimately answer His question, “Do you know how to create a world?” It seems that some answers are best left in the mystery of God!

Prayer: O God, you make this wondrous world, calm the storms all around us, and hear us when we are in trouble. Thank you for your steadfast love and your awesome creation. Amen.

Our Stephen Ministers can provide the support you need. Talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: Julie Baas (303-772-4995) or Stephanie Mason (970-744-0084). It’s distinctively Christian. It’s confidential. It’s a great way for us to show you how much we care! Please let us know if you’d like prayers and anointing with oil after worship. This can be arranged on short notice!! Just tell Pastor Dan.

If you desire personal prayer support, two Stephen Ministers will be available to pray with people after each service.
